Hi doll,

logged off early Fri to hang with kids.....hope this is not getting to you too late!!!

And yes, you will be punished (in the usual fashion!) when I see you..... but perhaps more harshly this time!!!

Miss hearing your voice.....maybe we'll have better luck tomorrow

AMLA

xoxo Wayne

Hi babe,

just a quickie as I'm writing frantically at my desk trying to finish my quetiapine paper; hope your day is going well. Was wondering if you have access to a paper (you won't like it much because it says that quetiapine isn't as effective as olanz or risperidone!!!) In fact I will probably need to be punished for even looking at it!

Ref follows:

Comparison of three antipsychotics in the emergency psychiatric setting.

if you have it, any chance of emailing me the full text? (I'll make it worth your while....)
